

Another Year Gone

For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand so that we would walk in them. Ephesians 2:10

Sleep Over!

One of the families we serve sadly had a death in the family recently.

While Dylan was away in November, Missy brought the boy to our house. He enjoyed watching Kids Netflix, eating pizza, and playing with Cate, our dog. Please pray for the Chinchilla family as they continue to recover from the loss of their mom/grandmother.

November is for Graduations

While the November to January is generally the busiest for us, it also tends to be the most joyful. October makes us nervous as we begin to get final grades of the sponsored kids from their schools. November is filled with graduations and celebrations of success. December is a time dedicated for fun and family. January is when everyone starts school again! In the background, our team works hard to get everyone registered for school, raise money for school supplies and uniforms, and make sure everyone is taken care of.

Celebrate Recovery

The women have just begun book 4 of 4 and the men are in book 3. We have completely turned this ministry over to local leadership!

ASELSI

Everything is in place for Dylan to start teaching these seminary classes beginning in February. We currently have 18 interested students.

Provision

An elderly woman we care for needed $400 worth of medicine for various issues and God provided!

These boys earned their driver's licenses

Little chefs!

Dylan goes away and Missy gets busy!

For the 3rd year in a row, Dylan “fled to the mountains” of Jacaltenango to help translate for a spiritual healing team in the beginning of November (stay tuned for a blog update on the details). “How’s Missy doing?” some of the team members who know her asked. “What is she doing while you are away?” Dylan only smiled and said, “she’s keeping busy!” Here is what unfolded:

- The aforementioned tragic loss of a boy’s grandmother. Missy and the rest of our team helped the family in their time of need
- One elderly woman we serve has battled stomach illness for some time and this was the week things got really bad and

Missy drove to and from the doctor a few times and got medicine for her, to include calling her every few hours to remind her which medicines to take and when

- Attending 3 different school graduations
- The regular ministry duties we BOTH usually take care of

After Dylan got home, he had to catch up on working to get kids registered so Missy got to go have fun with all of the children we serve thanks to our teammate Val who organized 2 fun days for the kids (pictures above).

We also got to enjoy an outing with our team that included lunch and zip-lining thanks to the generosity of an anonymous donor who sent in provision for us to enjoy time together as a team.

We praise the Lord for how He continues to provide for our every need through faithful prayer and financial partners like you. We have had several partners who have had to cut back on their giving or stop all together over this past year. So we’d like to ask that you would prayerfully consider giving a special year-end donation or sign up to start partnering with us monthly if you have not already. We are so thankful for all of you who continue to partner with us through prayer and financial support to continue to do the good work God has called us to here and we thank you for being a part of God’s faithful provision for us! We hope you all have a Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year!

Love, Dylan and Missy
